c. The Miami Condo. In the event that any portion of the net sale proceeds of the Miami Condo is returned to the defendant, or any other person, the defendant consents to, and will assist in, the restraint and recovery of such funds for forfeiture proceedings.

4. Upon entry of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (“Preliminary Order”), the United States Attorney General or his designee is authorized to seize the Forfeitable Assets, to conduct any proper discovery, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3) and (c), and to commence any applicable proceedings to comply with statutes governing third-party rights, including giving notice of this Preliminary Order.

5. The United States shall publish notice of this Preliminary Order in accordance with the custom and practice in this district on the government website www.forfeiture.gov, and of its intent to dispose of the Forfeitable Assets in such a manner as the Attorney General or his designee may direct. The United States may, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known or alleged to have an interest in the Forfeitable Assets as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

6. Any person, other than the defendant, asserting a legal interest in the Forfeitable Assets may, within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice or no later than sixty (60) days after the first day of publication on an official government website, whichever is earlier, petition the Court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his or her alleged interest in the Forfeitable Assets, and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6). Any petition filed in response to the notice of forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets must be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner’s right, title, or interest in the property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner’s acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner’s claim, and the relief sought.

7. The defendant shall fully assist the government in the repatriation, surrender and forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets and the payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment to the United States. The defendant shall take whatever steps are necessary to ensure that clear title to the Forfeitable Assets passes to the United States, including, but not limited to, the execution of any and all documents necessary to effectuate the repatriation, surrender and forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets to the United States. Such assistance shall also include providing any evidence, including any testimony, needed to seek the repatriation or forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets and/or to defend any third-party claims to such assets. The defendant agrees not to file a claim or petition seeking remission or contesting the forfeiture of any of the Forfeitable Assets or any property against which the government seeks to satisfy the Forfeiture Money Judgment in any administrative or judicial (civil or criminal) proceeding. The defendant further agrees not to assist any person or entity in the filing of any claim or petition seeking remission or contesting the forfeiture of any of the Forfeitable Assets or any property against which the government seeks to satisfy the Forfeiture Money Judgment in any administrative or judicial (civil or criminal) forfeiture proceeding.

8. If the Forfeitable Assets or the Forfeiture Money Judgment, or any portion thereof, are not forfeited to the United States, the United States, with the consent of the defendant, may seek to enforce this Preliminary Order against any other assets of the defendant up to the value of the Forfeitable Assets, and the outstanding balance of the Forfeiture Money Judgment, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p), as the conditions of 21 U.S.C. § 853(p)(1)(A)-(E) have been met.

9. The defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to any required notice concerning the forfeiture of the monies and/or properties forfeited hereunder, including notice set forth in an indictment or information or administrative notice. In addition, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right, if any, to a jury trial on the forfeiture of said monies and/or properties, and waives all constitutional, legal and equitable defenses to the forfeiture of said monies and/or properties, including, but not limited to, any defenses based on principles of double jeopardy, the Ex Post Facto clause of the Constitution, any applicable statute of limitations, venue, or any defense under the Eighth Amendment, including a claim of excessive fines.

10. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(A) and (B), this Preliminary Order shall become final as to the defendant at the time of the defendant's sentencing and shall be made part of the defendant's sentence and included in his judgment of conviction. If no third party files a timely claim, this Preliminary Order, together with Supplemental Orders of Forfeiture, if any, shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2). At that time, the monies and/or properties forfeited herein shall be forfeited to the United States for disposition in accordance with the law.

11. The United States alone shall hold title to the monies paid by the defendant to satisfy the Forfeiture Money Judgment following the Court's entry of the judgment of conviction. The United States alone shall hold title to the Forfeitable Assets following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2).

12. The forfeiture of the Forfeitable Assets and the entry and payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment shall not be considered a payment of a fine, penalty, restitution loss amount, or payment of any income taxes that may be due, and shall survive bankruptcy.

13. This Preliminary Order shall be binding upon the defendant and the successors, administrators, heirs, assigns and transferees of the defendant, and shall survive the bankruptcy of any of them.

14. This Preliminary Order shall be binding only upon the Court's "so ordering" of the order.

15. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action to enforce compliance with the terms of this Preliminary Order and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

16. The Clerk of the Court is directed to send, by inter-office mail, two (2) certified copies of this executed Order to the United States Attorney's Office, Eastern District of New York, Attn: FSA Law Clerk Joshua Lahijani, 271-A Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, New York 11201.
